RESULT AS MUCH IN DOUBT AS EVER

THIS ADMITTED BY FRENCH

Germans Continue to Drain Other Fighting Units to Support This Offensive Point.

6 AIRSHIPS IN BATTLE.

(By United Press.)
London, Oct. 5.—News agency dispatches from Antwerp say that six aeroplanes were engaged in a battle in the air over that city today but that finally all dispersed without any being disabled.

(By United Press.)
Paris, France, October 5.—That the battle between the German right and the French left north of the Oise river continues to increase in vigor was admitted in the three o'clock official communique issued this afternoon. And it was also stated in decisive terms that the outcome of this violent battle continues uncertain because of the fact that both sides are being constantly reinforced.

Elsewhere along the long wavering battle line extending across France and along the Meuse into Alsace-Lorraine it is stated that the situation remains unchanged.

The German offensive against the allied left wing continues with increasing violence. This was the significant statement which overshadowed all else in the three o'clock official communique.

That this should be is not surprising. The Germans continue to drain their other fighting units to pour reinforcements into the lines of Generals Von Boehn and Vol Kluck. They are fighting here to keep their offensive alive. When they are forced to retreat—and every military official here from General Gallieni down, declares that they eventually must give way or be annihilated—they will have to retire entirely from France. Because of the blow this would of necessity give to the fighting spirit of the German troops, the Germans are pouring every available man into the fight on the west. If Von Boehn and Von Kluck have to give way, the absolutely impregnable entrenched German centre would be immediately open to an attack from the rear and it must fall back along with the German right.

The Germans have, for the time being, lifted the danger to their line of communication. They have driven the allies back at the points where they have striven desperately to reach the railway line over which the German reinforcements and supplies are rushed.

2,500 PERSONS ARE KILLED

Earthquake Destroys Two Towns in Asiatic Turkey.

(By United Press.)
Constantinople, Oct. 5.—The minister of the interior was officially informed today that 2,500 persons have been killed and many injured in the earthquake which wrecked the carpet manufacturing towns of Isbarta and Burdur in the province of Konia, Asiatic Turkey late Saturday night.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Snodgrass and two children will leave tonight for a visit with friends in Grand Rapids, Wis.

PREPARING FOR ATTACK

Villista Troops Ready to Attack Enemy at Naco.

(By United Press.)
Naco, Arizona, Oct. 5.—The Villista troops who are operating across the border from here apparently are preparing for another attack on the position of Naco, Senoa, defended by the Carranzistas.
Desultory fighting continued today with little damage to either side. Several bullets fell on American soil and one American cavalryman was slightly wounded by a spent bullet.

TRY TO ISOLATE NORTHERN ARMY

Germans Continue Their Efforts in That Direction But Still See Victory in France.

FRENCH GIVE WAY IN PLACES

(By United Press.)
London, Oct. 5.—There is no sign of a let-up in the ferocity of the fighting in the west of France. The Germans continue their desperate attempts to isolate the northern army of General D'Amadee and have forced the French to give way at several points on the battle line. It is declared by military experts, however, that this action in no way means any general retreat by the French left. Simply at certain points the advanced line got into trouble and was withdrawn to the base where, under the support of their heavy artillery, the allies can hold the Germans in check.

The Germans realize how important to the spirit of the entire army is the holding of their present lines. This is shown by the extraordinary measures taken to reinforce their western forces. Thousands of men have been withdrawn from the center and left to strengthen the right.

They are using these fresh levies in a series of assaults of a most desperate character. The result will be to prolong but not to change the inevitable outcome of the battle already marked up by the allies as a victory for them, military experts here say.
All of the British reinforcements including the Indians and colonial troops, excepting probably the Canadians, are reported on the battle line. There is still considerable mystery regarding the disposition of the Dominion forces.

GRAND DUCHESS IS CAPTIVE

Story That Ruler of Luxemburg is Held is Discredited.

(By United Press.)
Paris, Oct. 5.—The Figaro says that the grand duchess of Luxemburg has been deported and is now held as a prisoner of war in a castle near Nuremberg. It also states that the Luxemburg army of 250 men, including its commander, are also held prisoners in Germany.

The story is generally discredited because of the friendliness existing between the grand duchess and the Germans.

COMMITTEE MEETING.

A meeting of the amusements committee of the Rush County Chamber of Commerce will be held in the headquarters of the chamber in the Odd Fellows building tonight at eight o'clock. A full attendance is urged as business of great importance needing urgent action will be transacted.

PORTUGAL ABOUT TO ENTER WAR

Great Britain Said to be Demanding Her Services and Transports Arrive to Carry Troops.

GERMAN GAINS DECISIVE

War Office Says They Have Pierced French Lines and Driven Men From Trenches.

(By United Press.)
Berlin, (By Wireless) Oct. 5.—Portugal is believed here to be about to take part in the war at the demand of Great Britain on the side of the allies. Advices here show that a number of British steamers have arrived at Lisbon and it is believed there that they are to be used to transport Portuguese troops to the battle line in France where the allies are being hard pressed by the Germans. In addition is known here that Indian troops who were landed at Marseilles have been rushed direct to the front where the British were in need of reinforcements.

The Germans are gaining decisively in the fighting in France which involves the right wing of their army, according to the official statement issued today. The flanking operations essayed by the allies have been checked and at several points along the line on the west the Germans have pierced the French columns and have driven them from their trenches. The fighting, it is stated, continues with the utmost ferocity and both sides are losing heavily.

The investment of Antwerp, the statement says, is proceeding with vigor and as planned.

In the eastern theatre of action it is announced that there has been very little serious fighting since yesterday and that the Austrian German positions are being held intact.

APPRAISE 4 ACRES OF LAND AT $2,000

Appraisers Submit Report Today in Petition Brought to Get Real Estate For Cemetery.

APPEAL IS NOT LIKELY NOW

The appraisers, John M. Stiers, Lon Mull and Cassius King, appointed Saturday by Special Judge Samuel Innis to assess the value, benefits and damages to John F. Smelser for land wanted by the Fairview Burial Grounds Association reported today. The report, as submitted to Judge Innis, gave Mr. Smelser $1,000 for the land, $50 for the improvements and $950 damages, making a total of $2,000. Four acres of land is involved.

Saturday Special Judge Innis held that the cemetery association, which wanted the four acres of land for an addition to their cemetery, was entitled to exercise the power of eminent domain and Smelser threatened to appeal the case. The appeal will hardly be taken now as Mr. Smelser believes he obtained a fair price for his land.

COMMISSIONERS MEET.

The county commissioners were in session today opening their regular October term of court. The usual claims were before the commissioners for allowance.

EQUALITY MUST BE RECOGNIZED

Jas E. Wasen Says Peace Will Never Come Until Nations Take Cognizance of Universal Doctrine.

PEACE DAY OBSERVANCE HERE

He Says Nations Are Still on Hog Plane Below Man—Appropriate Music is Sung.

Recognition of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man is necessary before wars on this earth shall cease, according to J. E. Watson who delivered an address on "The True Basis of Lasting Peace" last night at St. Paul's M. E. church when the city observed Peace Day, as requested by President Wilson, with a mass meeting and union service of the churches.

The church was packed to the doors and scores of people were turned away. It was suggested by many after the meeting began that it should have been held in the Main Street Christian church, which has the largest auditorium in the city. Many persons stood up during the entire address while many left because they were unable to get inside the doors.

Mrs. Will Amos sang a solo, "Let Us Have Peace," by Ernest R. Ball. The song was written while William Howard Taft was president and was dedicated to him and the cause of peace. It was used in many of the Peace Day celebrations throughout the United States yesterday. A quartet composed of the Misses Norma Smith and Nancy Hogsett and Hale Pearsey and Harry Lucas sang beautifully a selection appropriate for the occasion.

Mr. Watson said he felt that there was nothing of the personal element in the large crowd present, but that the people of the city gave sanction to the occasion and the spirit of the gathering by their presence.

"May the armies be reduced and the navies dismantled," said Mr. Watson, "that the world may be enveloped in the gentle arms of peace. Europe is now at war for the purpose of personal extermination and for the purpose of wiping Europe off the map."

"I am glad, as a member of an opposite political party, to sanction the president's efforts to bring about peace in Europe and to keep peace in America."

"But what is to be the final issue and the consummation of peace? There is an omnipotent force back of the universe. Philosophers call it the first great cause. Christians call it God. The causes by which man has progressed must promote that further progress which will finally bring us to the pinnacle of peace. But until we reach that plane there will be war."

"It is the work of years to subdue the animal in a child. The same is true of nations. Even now they say we have placed the dollar above the man. For hundreds of thousands of years the human race lived on the animal plane. Might was placed above right. It was the age of muscle. There were those who said civilization should be built up by the age of muscle. Then the intellectual man came forward. But after years and years civilization had not come."

"Then the Man of Nazareth came. He said that ye should love one another. And all of the civilization of which we now boast has come since that time."

"I am not going to say all wars have been useless. Progress is the child of strife. War is better than chains. Better war than slavery"

EIGHT MEN KNOWN DEAD

Twenty Others in Mine Where Explosion Occurred Today.

(By United Press.)
Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 5.—Eight men are known dead and fifteen injured seriously as a result of gas explosion in the Mulga coal mine near here this morning. One hundred and seventy-five men were in the mines at the time. Besides the men dead and injured twenty men are still in the mines and believed dead. The others escaped.

LIVES OF SICK MAN AND WIFE ARE SAVED

Will Yates, An Invalid, and Mrs. Yates Rescued by Neighbors Sunday When House Burns.

LACE CURTAIN CATCHES FIRE

Through the efforts of neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Will Yates of Clarksburg were saved from burning to death early Sunday morning when their house caught fire. Mr. Yates is an invalid and Mrs. Yates was sick in bed, and both would probably have perished in the flames but for the timely arrival of neighbors.

The fire was caused by a lace curtain coming in contact with a gas jet on the wall. Mr. and Mrs. Yates were awakened by the smoke and found the house in flames. Their cries for help aroused the neighborhood and they were rescued from the flames. The fire was found about twelve-thirty o'clock Sunday morning. The flames gained such headway that it was impossible to save any of the household goods and the entire dwelling was destroyed. Mrs. Yates suffered from the nervous shock and today was reported to be in a serious condition.

ANNA FINNEY IS MARRIED SUNDAY

Rushville Girl and Harry F. Randell of Elgin, Ill., Who Has Been Working Here, Are Wedded.

TAKES PLACE IN KENTUCKY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Randell arrived here this morning from Cincinnati. Mrs. Randell until yesterday was Miss Anna Finney. The wedding which took place in Covington was supposed to be a secret but the news of it reached here long before they arrived. The bride had been visiting in Ohio for the past week and yesterday met Mr. Randell in Cincinnati and they slipped over to Covington and were married.

The news of the marriage came as a surprise to her friends here and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Finney, Sr., would hardly believe it. She wired her parents last evening that she had missed the train and would be home this morning, but did not mention the marriage. Mr. Randell told friends here Saturday that he intended to spend Sunday in Indianapolis but this was evidently for a blind.

His home is in Elgin, Ill., and he has been here the past summer employed as a brick layer on the Masonic Temple. They have not made known their plans as to the future.

DETAILS FIXED FOR CEREMONIES

Masons, School Board and High School Alumni to March to Building For Cornerstone Laying.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON AT 1:15

Masonic Past Grand Master Will be in Charge and W. L. Bryan Will Make Chief Address.

The cornerstone of the new Graham Annex school building will be laid tomorrow afternoon at one-thirty o'clock with full Masonic ceremonies. The ceremonies are to be conducted by Calvin W. Prather, past grand master of the Indiana Masons, assisted by members of Phoenix Lodge, No. 62 F. and A. M. Invitations have been sent to all Masonic lodges in the district to participate in the cornerstone laying and many visitors are expected to attend.

The local Masons are preparing to entertain the visitors and will serve lunch at noon in the lodge rooms. The ceremonies will start promptly at one-thirty o'clock in order that W. L. Bryan, president of Indiana University, can deliver an address. The Masons will leave the hall at one-fifteen o'clock for the building and all alumni of the high school are requested to meet at the hall and march to the building with the Masons and members of the school board.

President Bryan will deliver a short oration in keeping with the occasion. Miss Helen Scott, teacher of music in the local schools, will direct a large chorus and the class taking music in the high school will sing the Indiana school song.

The Masons to take part in the ceremonies other than Mr. Prather will be Col. E. H. Wolfe, Will M. Sparks, Charles E. Brown, Earl H. Payne, George W. Osborne, the Rev. Virgil W. Tevis and John Rutledge. J. T. Johnson, the architect, will take the part of Superintendent of Construction and request the grand master to lay the cornerstone.

As is usually the case in laying cornerstones, papers and other things will be placed in the box and sealed. It is planned to place the following in the box: a short story of the school buildings of Rushville; a list of the teachers and school officers for 1914-1915; a list of the superintendents of the Rushville schools; list of the school board members and the years of their service since 1853; copies of the Rushville papers for Oct. 5, 1914; copies of Indianapolis papers for Oct. 5, 1914 and a printed copy of the Masonic ceremony conducted by Calvin Prather in laying the cornerstone, together with a list of acting grand lodge officers participating.

Why Newspapers Sell Goods

Newspaper circulations are built by public confidence.

People believe in the newspapers they read.

They personally know most of the local advertisers.

When a national product is advertised in a newspaper it enters good society.

It has the stamp of familiarity. It carries confidence with it.

It reaches people when they are in the mood to buy and tells of goods readily obtainable.

SCHOOL GIRLS PREFER WORK

Census in Chicago Shows That They Take Jobs and Then Look Over Field for Husband

DEMONSTRATES THEIR ABILITY

Are Fast Breaking Away From Economic Dependence of Men—Not Simply for a Home

(By United Press.)
 Chicago, Oct. 5.—A few years ago when a girl left school she immediately began to hunt a husband. Getting married was her only outlook, and the best chance she had of getting a home. It's different now. When a Chicago girl leaves school these days she immediately hunts a job. Then when she has demonstrated her ability to support herself—and, perhaps, contribute largely toward the upkeep of divers brothers and sisters—she leisurely looks over the male of the species and selects one to suit her fancy.

All of this is indicated by the new school census, according to W. L. Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education. His figures show there are 759,778 males engaged in occupations in the city, compared with 555,515 in 1909, while 236,811 females hold positions now, against 149,876 in 1909. The men gained only 36%, while the women gained 58 per cent.

"These statistics show the women of today are fast breaking away from the economic dependence on men," said Bodine. "Girls are not marrying just to get a home. Statistics show that marriages are not increasing with the same percentage of gains as the population."

Some of the occupations in which women and girls of Chicago are engaged, and the number employed, are as follows: Stenographers, 21,669; dressmakers, 15,099; domestics, 34,073; physicians, 529; janitresses, 725; bookkeepers, 9,977; merchants, 3,375; telephone operators, 4,777; milliners, 5,461; teachers, 8,573.

Good Things Never Sell Below Par

But many an inferior article is sold for twice its worth. This is especially so in vehicles. Very few dealers sell buggies at one price to all. We do and everybody pays the same. That is the reason our buggies are lower priced than our competitors. We have but one price and it has to be low enough to impress our customers and get the business. We want you to see our storm buggies. They are the best that can be bought and we believe we have the only door that can not and will not rattle. You can not find a better storm buggy with a better reputation for road service or a finer looking one than we have but you can find higher priced ones that simply mean more profit tacked on. Be guided by these facts rather than led by false hopes and when you get ready for a storm buggy we want to show you the best line you ever looked at and at a price that represents value received. You will eventually buy your buggies of Spivey. Why not start now?

Beveridge's Chances.

Robert G. Tucker, Indiana correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, presents some enlightening facts in an article in the Enquirer Sunday concerning Indiana politics. He says that Albert J. Beveridge, Bull Moose candidate for United States senator, seems to be laboring under the illusion that every man who attends his meeting is going to vote for him. In this respect, Mr. Beveridge will be badly fooled. The correspondent calls attention to the fact that the wagers in Indianapolis are that Beveridge will run third in the election November 3. Tucker predicted that the odds would be as great as three to one that Beveridge would finish behind the Republicans and Democrats. He also said that most of the politicians were not willing to concede Beveridge more than from seventy-five to a hundred thousand vote, whereas he received 165,000 votes in 1912 as the Bull Moose candidate for governor in Indiana.

It will be recalled that in the last campaign, this betting feature was a favorite theme of the Indianapolis Star, but the Star has been strangely silent on this topic this campaign. Incidentally this was a very good forecast of the vote two years ago, but none of the opponents of those picked to win were willing to admit it.

Tucker is an unbiased political writer. His writings on political conditions nearly always hit the mark. The Republicans were not willing to admit it in 1912, but nevertheless, it was true.

Bitter attacks on the Indianapolis News by the Democratic press throughout the state is the rule because the News has thrown the calcium on the manipulations of the Democratic machine and its hirelings in the state house and in the last Democratic legislature. It is quite natural that the Democratic newspapers should flare up because the News is hitting the foot the corn is on. The Democratic press appears to be very elated because the editor-in-chief and the chief political writer of the News have been called to appear Wednesday before the Marion county grand jury which has been summoned to investigate the charge of crookedness in the passage of two bills in the last legislature. The News men seem to have no cause for worry. They have been asking for an investigation. Undoubtedly they have the facts or the News would never have never made the assertions it has concerning some of the things done in the last legislature. The News has always been found to know what it is talking about and the brothers of the opposite faith had better not be too hasty in pronouncing judgment.

NATIONAL CONVENTION TODAY.

Charles Pettis of this city went to Indianapolis today to attend the National convention of the Barbers Union. The national convention meets every five years. Mr. Pettis was a delegate from the local Barbers Union.

SUFFS MEET.

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, O., Oct. 3.—This city was the Mecca today for Ohio women suffragists who flocked here from every corner of the state to take part in the big parade as a part of a statewide campaign to carry the proposed equal suffrage amendment to the constitution next November.

More than 3,000 women and 200 men, headed by Miss Maltilda Spence of Cleveland, who acts as Grand Marshal, were expected to be in the line of march.

INDIANA TROOPS TO HELP.

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 5.—That Indian troops have been sent to aid the British in capturing the German East African colonies was admitted by the war bureau today. German East African troops have been repulsed repeatedly by English East African troops, it is stated.

A well at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cline was completed yesterday. It is a hundred and eight feet deep and fifty-four feet are in limestone. The well was pumped with an engine for four hours and it was impossible to lower it. The well was put down by Ora Fort of Knights-town.

The Aid society of the Main Street Christian church will meet one week from Tuesday instead of tomorrow as was previously announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coffin moved today from 830 North Main street to Milroy.

DONN ROBERTS'S CANDIDACY.

The candidacy of Donn M. Roberts, notorious mayor of Terre Haute, for the Democratic nomination for governor, is one of the most powerful influences in the present campaign in behalf of the Republican state ticket. Reports from every section of the state are to the effect that law-loving Democrats, thoroughly disgusted at this, the latest move of the brewery organization to strangle their party, have decided to "clean house" this year by voting the straight Republican ticket. They figure, it is said, that it would be better to do this in 1914 than to wait until the presidential election in 1916.

It is said that the feeling among Democrats in southern Indiana is particularly bitter against the candidacies of Roberts and Homer L. Cook, who was the speaker of the 1913 legislature which went down in the history of Indiana as one of the worst ever known. In the Second district the candidacy of "Bill" Cullop for congress is also distasteful to a large per cent of the Democratic voters.

"The candidacy of Donn Roberts is one of the best assets of the Republicans of Indiana this year," remarked a Democratic traveling man after his return from a three-weeks tour through the southern part of the state. "I have heard hundreds of Democrats openly announce their intention of voting the straight Republican ticket this year. I firmly believe that the candidacies of Roberts and Cook will cost the Democratic state ticket 50,000 votes."

DEMOCRATIC PAPER FIGHTS COOK.

The following is from the Jasper County Democrat:

Homer L. Cook, Democratic candidate for secretary of state by virtue of the Taggart-Fairbanks machine and to whom some of the vicious legislation of the last legislature is alleged to be due, including the uncalled for extension of term of county superintendents for two years more, notified County Supt. Lamson yesterday morning that he would be in Rensselaer that afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Cook will loose thousands of Democratic votes in Indiana and many in Jasper county. It is said that he is enlisting the aid of county superintendents and teachers over the state to offset these losses. Other Democratic candidates for state offices were to be here with Cook.

Disease--How to Prevent It

(Dr. Hurty will answer questions on prevention of disease, hygiene and sanitation. Questions requiring a personal answer cannot be considered. One reason why many of us get sick and drop into poverty is one-half of our wages goes for tobacco, whiskey, tea, coffee and other drugs. All of these dopes bring disease. And much poverty is due to disease. Why multiply the dopes and then organize relief societies?

Of all criminals one hundred percent have had bad habits. Ninety-five percent use tobacco, most of them excessively; one hundred percent use alcohol, more or less; fifty to sixty percent use drugs, namely—morphine, cocaine, bromides, etc., and over ninety-five percent are either slightly or grossly perverted sexually. Criminality is not hereditary, but instable brain matter with weak will and moral obtundity are.

Columbus writes—"What is the relationship of the liquor traffic to Indiana's health?"

Reply—I presume you want to know whether or not the liquor traffic affects the public health. Alcohol is opposed to the health of the body. Every drop of alcohol introduced into the body is inimical to the healthful processes of the body. The liquor traffic is therefore a fight against the public-health.

A. N. C. Vincennes, writes—"You write of Germany's health. What will the result of this war be on the German type of manhood?"

Reply—I fear the result of the war on the German type of manhood will be very bad. This subject has been thoroughly discussed by Dr. David Starr Jordan and I think he points out plainly that the German type of manhood will be lowered through the killing off in the war of the higher types.

Spiceland writes—"What do you recommend as a flesh builder? My stomach is good and I get plenty of outdoor exercise."

Reply—As a flesh builder, I recommend plain simple foods. I do not recommend medicines of any kind. If your stomach is good and if you sleep in a well ventilated bed room and if you get the proper amount of outdoor exercise, then you will put on the proper amount of flesh. Don't be alarmed if you are thin and yet have health and a clear mind.

How Democratic Tariff Law Works in Indiana

Hobart, Ind., Oct. 5.—Democratic "prosperity," has hit this city a severe blow. One hundred and fifty men were thrown out of work when the National Fireproofing Co., Hobart's principle industry, was obliged to close down, on account of the business depression. The closing of the plant was a serious blow to Hobart as it furnished employment nearly all the year round and has always been one of the most stable concerns in the county.

The factory manufactures tile and brick, but for the past few months there has been little demand for its output. Work, however, continued until the yards were filled and there was no more storage room. It was then that the owners decided to suspend operations until better conditions prevailed. The plant was established years ago and has been in constant operation. Even in the panic of 1893 when many mills and factories closed down, the plant continued to operate.

Elwood, Ind., Oct. 3.—Prosperity of the Democratic variety, has struck this city. Announcement has been made that the local tinplate factory, employing 2,000 men, will suspend operation for an indefinite period. The plant has been operating steadily for the last six years. New tariff regulations are said to be directly responsible for the closing.

EQUALITY MUST

should exist here. But too often thrones, crowns and scepters are the tokens of war.

"What does all this war mean? Who is to benefit or profit? What soul is to be freed? What home will be made happier? What are they to settle? Any great principle at stake? Any slaves to be freed? Any shackles to be torn away? No."

Mr. Watson enumerated some of the great warriors of history who have tried the same thing that is being attempted in Europe now. He declared that such men are like wolves and jackals rushing to the field of battle to lacerate and destroy. But he asserted that the United States had been most fortunate in its wars. He expected the war with Mexico, which was a war of conquest. We stole the territory, he said, but we paid for it in human blood in cash.

"The doctrine of human equality is the only basis on which any war can be settled. One idea is existent throughout human history. It is one that has survived strife; the recognition of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. It is the one fundamental concept that has lasted through the ages.

"We can't settle the war on the physical or intellectual plane. The physical is necessary, but must be dominated by the intellectual, which in turn must be imbued with the spiritual in order for the nation to be right side up. Germany, which its wonderful facilities for education, will never be saved from war by intellect. The Man of Nazareth taught us a new prayer, 'Oh Father, 'Oh Father.' Until the nations of the world come to recognize this doctrine of equality, there will be bloodshed."

Mr. Watson pointed out that this war was brought about through the ambitions of three men. France fights for revenge, he declared, because Germany stole two territories, Alsace and Lorraine, from her. England fights, he asserted, to maintain her commercial supremacy and Russia fights to obtain an open waterway to the ocean.

"The countries of Europe are striving for an equilibrium," continued Mr. Watson, "when they should be seeking the equilibrium of men. Nations are below men. They are on the hog plane. Man has courts to settle his disputes; nations resort to force. We may have Hague tribunals and all other panaceas, but nations first have to be right just as men do. War will be settled by bringing into fruition the one perpetual doctrine of equality."

COURT "DARK."

Judge Megee did not hold court today owing to the fact that most of the attorneys and the judge himself were interested in the registration.

REFUSES TO ACT AS SPECIAL JUDGE

John D. Megee Declines Appointment in Marion County Superior Court in Injunction Suit.

WILL NOT GIVE REASONS WHY

Judge John D. Megee, judge of the Rush circuit court, has declined to serve as special judge in the injunction suit brought by Mayor Joe Bell of Indianapolis in Judge Rochford's room of Marion county superior court against Thomas Riley, Indianapolis city clerk, to prevent him from employing attorneys to codify the city ordinances as provided in an Indianapolis city ordinance passed by the Indianapolis council over the mayor's veto.

Judge Megee today refused to state why he had declined to act. He said that he would have something to say in regard to his action in due time.

Some time ago Clerk Riley filed a petition to have the case transferred to the circuit court, but Judge Rochford denied the petition. The names of a number of Indianapolis attorneys were submitted to act as special judge but Mayor Bell would not submit to the appointment of any of them. Then Judge Rochford picked Judge Earl Sample of Hancock county, Judge Edward Dupree of Johnson county and Judge Megee from which to pick a special judge. The defendant struck off the name of Judge Sample and the plaintiff Judge Dupree, leaving Judge Megee to act.

DILLON BATTLES FLYNN TONIGHT

Hoosier Bearcat Has His Eye on Championship Belt and Much Depends on Fight

CHALLENGES ALL COMERS

(By United Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 5.—With his mind's eye on Jimmy Coffroth's dazzling middleweight championship belt, Jack Dillon will battle Fireman Jim Flynn tonight for ten rounds—not that this bout with the light heavyweight will have any direct effect on the Hoosier bearcat's chances for the belt. Jack figures that if a middleweight can knock out a light heavyweight it ought at least to attract some attention.

Flynn and Dillon have met here before, Dillon won a shade over his heavier opponent. Tonight Dillon will weigh 162 while Flynn will weigh 180. The bout is at catch weights. Dillon will try for a knockout. Flynn has kept his own counsel, but 'tis believed he has much the same ambition.

Dillon while here reiterated his challenge to any and all good middleweights, and called attention to his posted forfeit of $1,000 that he would make 158 pounds at 3 o'clock the afternoon of the fight. He has his eyes on the Chip-Clabby or Chip-Gibbons fight at Frisco Thanksgiving afternoon. Dillon says he will vanquish the winner.

STILL PREACHES IN WALL STREET

"Bishop" Continues His Curb Stone

Meetings Denote Fact That Financial District is "Dead."

HAS BEEN THERE FOR YEARS

Congregation is Made up of Millionaires and Clerks and He Has Many Friends

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK
 (Written for United Press.)

New York, Oct. 5.—Though Wall Street is officially closed and as far as business is concerned is absolutely dead, yet one institution—one form of its life—continues as before. This institution is the Rev. William Wilkinson, better known to hundreds of the country's most prominent financiers and to thousands of habitués of the financial district as "The Bishop of Wall Street."

For the past ten years this pastor, who is one of the vicars of Trinity church, has preached daily on Wall Street. The curbstone has been his pulpit and his congregation has been made up of millionaires and clerks. All are alike to him. They are all a part of mankind and it is to mankind that he preaches—not any class or division.

Since the war started and the stock market closed Broad and Wall Streets have presented a very dreary appearance. But "Bishop" Wilkinson has never missed a day's appearance there. And there always is a large "congregation" on hand to hear him preach.

The history of the "Bishop" and how he came to adopt Wall street as his church form an interesting story. Dr. Wilkinson formerly lived in Minnesota. In fact he achieved considerable fame there. Associated with Bishop Whipple of Minn. He was named a member of the relief committee to bring the succor to the sufferers in the great forest fire that swept that section in 1894. At the risk of his life he visited the scene of the disaster and buried 157 charred and mutilated bodies.

But the Rev. Wilkinson long had had visions of preaching to the workers and financiers on Wall Street. He had heard of how that was the most ungodly place in the world. They needed missionaries in Africa, in Asia and other foreign countries he argued with himself but why didn't they need them on Wall Street just as much.

So despite the objections of the late James J. Hill, Senator Nelson and the late Governor Johnson he came to New York from Minnesota. Those men wanted him to remain in Minnesota. His great work after the forest fires had endeared him to them and they wanted to keep him with them.

Dr. Wilkinson hesitated for some time after coming to Trinity about broaching his project to his associates. He feared that his plan would be regarded as shocking and outraging stately old dignified Trinity. But his fears were illgrounded. When he finally took up the matter he was met with the greatest kindness. The authorities at Trinity, while agreeing with him that he was guilty of a startling innovation, said that his apparent sincerity would offset any criticism that might be occasioned.

So the Rev. Wilkinson went into Wall Street to save souls. When he first appeared on the street corner and started to talk he created a mild sensation. Passersby first thought he was some kind of medicine faker. But on stopping to listen they learned otherwise. It was not long before the minister became well known and he was named the "Bishop of Wall Street." And as "Bishop" he is known today.

First clerks and the toiling class in general made up his congregation. But news of him reached the financiers and some of them stopped to listen to him. And they received quite a shock when he attacked them for methods some had been reported as using. He warned them that he had but one gospel to preach and that it was for rich and poor alike.

"You may disagree with me," he told them. "You may criticize me, but there is one thing you cannot do—you cannot patronize me."

It wasn't long until the millionaires formed a large part of his audience. His "sermons" appealed to them as much if not more than it did to the others. He was continually raking them over the coals but his statements were made in all sincerity and they knew it.

The "Bishop" now numbers among his best friends some of the biggest men the street has ever known. They realize his usefulness and what he has done for the workers in the financial district. He has worked for the betterment of all and indeed has done a great deal for all classes.

"It is impossible to estimate the good accomplished in this secession through the ministering of this modest and unassuming real man," was the tribute paid to the "Bishop" by Henry Clews, dean of the financial district.

PLUM CREEK HAS A BIG DAY SUNDAY

Crowds Flock to All Day Meeting and

Home-Coming Sunday—Hospitality is Unstained

SEVERAL PASTORS SPEAK

Sunday was one of the great days in the history of the Plum Creek Christian Church. Assisted by the churches of Center, Raleigh and Ben Davis Creek, this church planned and took the lead in making its first home-coming event a notable one in every respect.

There was largely attended services in the forenoon at which the Rev. Mr. Grisco of Ben Davis Creek preached the sermon. Following this, dinner was served in the basement of the church, a feast of such large proportions and rare excellence that no written description could possibly do it justice. After the great crowd had been bountifully fed, still there was an abundance left. No one who had a part in this part of the days delightful program will ever forget the kind and hospitable reception extended to every one, and people were in attendance from all over the county.

In the afternoon the Rev. Cyrus Yocum preached the principal sermon. An overflow meeting was addressed by Revs. Allen of Center church and Grisco, of the Plum Creek church. Services were also held at night.

It was clearly demonstrated that Plum Creek people not only excel as church workers but in genuine and unstinted hospitality. Great good to the Master's cause must result from such an occasion.

PROWLERS FOUND IN COURT HOUSE

George Abernathy, Fireman, Heard

Men Talking Saturday Morning
 Early—Thought Nothing of it.

NOTHING FOUND MISSING

Joe Dickman, custodian of the court house has a mystery. He would like to know who the two men were in the court house shortly after five o'clock Saturday morning and how they got in and what business they had there. George Abernathy, fireman at the county heating plant went into the court house Saturday morning shortly after five o'clock and heard two men talking in the corridor of the second floor. It was very dark in the building and he could not see who it was, but naturally supposed it was some one of the office holders.

Investigation by Dickman showed that none of the county officials was at their offices at this hour in the morning and he is at a loss to know who they were. Dickman says there are plenty of keys to the building and it may be that the two men spent the night in the building.

VARIED TOPICS ARE DISCUSSED

Ministers Preach Sermons at Usual Hours Sunday Morning, Regular Services Being Held.

WARNING AGAINST SKEPTICISM

Every Member Canvass Referred to at St. Paul's M. E.—Reference to War at Christian.

Ministers of the city filled their pulpits at the appointed hour Sunday morning. The "Every Member" canvass was discussed at the St. Paul's M. E. church. At the Main Street Christian church, the Rev. C. M. Yocum referred to the European war in a sermon on "Christ Our Manna." The Rev. S. G. Huntington warned against skepticism at the First Baptist church. His subject was "Spiritual Growth." The Rev. A. W. Jamieson talked to the Bible school on the topic, "The Word." Following are excerpts of the sermons.

United Presbyterian

Yesterday was the annual Rally Day in the Bible school. A special program was carried out in which the pastor gave an address on "The Word." He said in part:

The word gives Life. John 5:39 "Search the scriptures, for in them ye think ye think ye have eternal life; they are they which testify of me." I Peter 1:23 "Being born again, not of corruptible, seed, but of incorruptible; by the word of God which liveth and abideth forever." Eternal life is inseparably connected with the gospel. The Bible is the only book that can make us "Wise unto salvation." But it is not the possession of the Bible, alone, that accomplishes our salvation. An American was once in the country of Abyssinia. He was seized as a spy, and while not put to death was held as a suspect. Chains were around his ankles. Officers kept him in charge. But he was given the privilege of going about and gathering, in part at least, his own living. A tourist saw him, was anxious to help him, but dared not do so openly. He asked for the privilege of presenting him with a book. That privilege was granted. The poor fellow did not care much for a book. Three years passed before the book was really opened. The man was still in his chains, and still bemoaning his hard lot. When he opened the book he felt something hard in the back of it. Examining, he found a file, the very thing he had been longing for. He soon dragged himself to the woods, filed off his chains, made may to the seashore, and escaped to freedom.

The closed, unread, unused Bible in your home, will never make you wise unto salvation. You must find the Christ revealed in the Bible, make him your personal Saviour, obey His will. "But these things are written that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the son of the living God, and that, believing ye may have life through His name."

The word gives Light. Psa. 119: 105 "The word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." "The entrance of thy word giveth light." Bartimaeus was blind. Jesus opened his eyes. What a blessing when a blind man is given his sight! Many people are spiritually blind. They do not see the truth that God intends them to see. One prayer that we are taught to offer is, "Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law." "Sometimes people say, I suppose if we are living up to the light we have, we are doing as well as we can. It depends on whether you are using the best light you might have.

One night I had to drive home after dark with just the kerosene lamps on the automobile. It was sure to have a better light before I ever drove, after dark, again. No one is justified in following his own unguided reason, when God's revelation is at hand. Jesus is the Light of the world. Only in Christ, revealed in the Bible, do we see truth clearly.

The word gives Power, Acts 1:8 "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you" Eph 2:10 "Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. No man has power for God unless, like Apollon, he is "Mighty in the scriptures." The object of our Bible school is that everyone who comes may learn the way of God more perfectly, and be thoroughly furnished unto every good work."

ST. Paul's M. E.

Yesterday morning the Rev. A. D. Batchelor preached on "The Ministering Church." The sermon was delivered in the interest of the "every-member canvass" which will be made Oct. 15th. Last year the "every-member canvass" was so successful that it has now been adopted as an annual affair.

The text of the sermon was Isa 61: 6, "Men shall call you the ministers of God." He said in part:

This was a prophecy of the position Israel was to occupy after the exile. They were to "build the old wastes" to "raise up the former desolations." For this service they were to be called the "ministers of God." It has always been God's aim to make his people "ministers". For this reason the word "service" is frequently stressed in the scriptures. In these latter times the church takes the place of Israel. They call our church meetings a "service" because through them we aim to minister. Our church "services", therefore, are not appointed for more worship, but also for "work." They should not be formal but should function.

There are moral "wastes" and desolations" about us, which need repairing. We cannot better serve our generation than to replace moral waste with spiritual wealth. To do this work we are especially called. We are saved for service.

We may minister through our salvation. Paul speaks of the "ministry of reconciliation." By this he means we are to seek to get men right with God. This is the first work of the church and should be planned for and provided for by the agencies of the church. The public appeal should be supplemented by a personal appeal. A personal canvass of the church's unsaved constituency by the officary of the church is the most powerful and effective appeal that could possibly be made. It will sooner enliven the church and win more to Christ than any other approved plan.

We may also minister through our sociability. Christian people should by all means prove themselves hospitable. Strangers should be given a cordial welcome and be made to feel at home. A little thoughtful attention to strangers will disarm much unfavorable criticism and will give the church a wonderful prestige. The stranger who moves into our community should be diligently canvassed and invited to unite with us in our work of "ministering." Sociability also implies sympathy. There can be no genuine ministrations without sympathy. The sick and the bereaved should receive our untiring attention and compassionate aid. Ruskin said, "Men are vulgar in proportion as they are incapable of sympathy." If we can bring good cheer into the midst of the desolation wrought by disease and death, we shall be truly the "ministers of God."

We minister through the support we may give to the church. In this way we may make our church our minister through a hundred channels. We ought not to regard the church as an institution out of which we are merely to get something. It is an organized agency through which we are to minister to the world. The effectiveness and efficiency of its ministry depends upon the measure of its financial support. The aim of the "every-member canvass" is to invite every member to participate in this form of ministering. The plan is to ask for weekly contributions that our ministering may be continuous. These contributions are for twelve selected, benevolent causes, as well as for the local support. By doing this we multiply at least twelve times our ability to minister to others in every part of the world. We should covet, therefore an opportunity to support the church in as much as the well organized agencies of the church extend our power to minister, and thus make our single ability many fold more efficient and effective.

Main Street Christian.

The sermon subject at the Main Street Christian church yesterday morning was "Christ Our Manna." The text was John 6:35. The Rev. C. M. Yocum said in part:

Of the 600,000 Israelitish men who left Egypt for the promised land only two entered. All partook of the first salvation from Egypt, only two shared the final glories of the land which flowed with milk and honey. Here is a lesson for the church member. It is not enough to begin; we must continue.

Israel failed through distrust. God liberated them from their bondage of 400 years. As they crossed the Red Sea they sang: as they entered the desert they murmured.

"It's easy enough to be pleasant, When life runs along like a song But the man worth while Is the one with a smile

When everything goes dead wrong." When they became hungry and faint in the wilderness God sent them manna. Each morning they gathered sufficient for the day's need. Gathering the bread sent by Jehovah they were strengthened for their long and wearisome wanderings.

The world today is even yet held in partial bondage to sin. Improved over ages past the nations even now are held in the ruthless grasp of selfishness. Europe today groans in the pains of cruel conflict. Tomorrow she shall lie prostrate, enervated by her own strenuous struggles. And why does she fight? For humanity's sake? To uplift a race? Unworthy ambition is the reason. The world needs spiritual food. She has eaten to the full of the bread of strife. She has been gluttonous with commercial food. She starves for the bread of life. Like a child fed on improper food the nations of the world are abnormally developed, immature here, overgrown there.

But God sends His manna today, and we must gather it and feed upon it. Christ alone will bring real life; He only can give spiritual health. We must partake of Him in the morning; we must imbibe his spirit that we live.

First Baptist.

The Rev. S. G. Huntington used as his text for the sermon on "Spiritual Growth" at the First Baptist church Sunday morning Second Peter, 3:18: "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." He spoke in part as follows:

This text is addressed to professed Christians. The context shows that the apostle was fearful for the saints, at least, from two points of danger. These were, first, skepticism, and second, inactivity. Skepticism always leads to a misinterpretation of the Bible and to doubt, while inactivity pretends to stagnation and spiritual death. Either of these conditions is hazardous if not deadly. Each is linked to the other and as in the apostle's time, so now we see too much of both.

Peter evidently believed in the doctrine of prevention and, therefore, did not believe in waiting until the harm was all done and then apply the remedy. Therefore, he taught believers the great need of spiritual and intellectual growth in the things of God.

Simply to continue grace is not sufficient. To be satisfied with what one knows of Christ today is not enough; additional knowledge from day to day is necessary. Of Jesus we read, "And the Christ grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him." Nothing is so effectual in drowning out skepticism and driving doubt from the mind as the study of God's word and the application of it to this life. Growth in grace depends upon growth in the knowledge of God's will. The one great reason why so many people who unite with the church and profess the Christian religion are weak and fall by the way is the failure to acquaint themselves with what God says to them in His word. If we enjoy spiritual prosperity we must learn that it requires as much thought and energy to maintain it as the business or professional man gives to his business or profession. The business man nowadays who does not study his business and apply business principles to his business soon fossilizes or goes out of business. Ditto the former church member.

The plant can not grow without soil, light, moisture, heat etc.; neither can the soul grow without spiritual advantage; namely, the study of God's word, prayer, fellowship, attendance of the house of worship etc. A theoretical religion is not sufficient to merit eternal life. Salvation is both practical and experimental. Advancement within the realms of God's spiritual kingdom is heaven's assurance that the children of the kingdom will not fall or be led astray by the false claims of the "unearned."

REGISTRATION LOOKS TO BE BIG

Reports From Many Precincts Indicated About Half of Vote Had Been Registered at Noon.

DAY PASSES VERY QUIETLY

Polls Will be Open Until Nine O'clock Tonight so Every Man May Have a Chance.

With fifty per cent of the vote registered at noon, leaders of all parties believed that only a small per cent of the voters of Rush county would be prevented from voting at the general election because of not having registered.

The one and only registration day for Rush county voters passed off, for the most part, in a quiet manner. There was no confusion at the registration poles and the work was handled in an easy manner. The precincts in the city all showed that one-half of the vote had been registered by noon and with nine o'clock tonight as the time limit for getting in the remainder, the leaders were confident that most of the vote would be registered.

The out precincts also reported a large registration and from all indications the country vote will be as well if not better registered than that here in the city. Automobiles, and carriages were busily engaged in seeing that all voters got to the poles. The rush started early this morning and continued throughout the day. It was almost certain that the total vote to be registered today would be greater than two years ago, when three days were used in registering.

One reason for this is that the voters are more generally acquainted with the law and today absent voters could register, which they could not do two years ago. Regardless of party all voters were urged to register as the outcome in November will bear directly on the registration. Voters were given every opportunity to register and it was their own fault if they did not. The large factories of the city were closed for the day that their employees might register.

Tonight by nine o'clock is the last chance.

LOOKS LIKE COURT OF FORMER DAYS

Four Men Are up Before Mayor Behout This Morning for Intoxication and Fined

ALL THE FINES ARE STAYED

Police court took on the appearance of former days this morning when four men were arraigned before Mayor Behout, all charged with public intoxication. Three of the four were arrested last night at the Western Hotel, where they were "throwing" a party and became too noisy in the celebration. John Taylor, Henry Graham and Henry Gallimore were the men arrested at the hotel. Mort Stark, a printer, was the fourth. All pleaded guilty and were fined one dollar and costs, amounting to eleven dollars.

The fines of all four were stayed so that the men could register. An extra effort was made to keep the men from going to jail as an opinion on the law provides that a man in jail cannot register.

The most remarkable moving picture play and story ever written. By far the best work of this master literary workman. A real masterpiece of thrills from start to finish.

It will be printed serially in this paper and you will read it with extreme interest.

More Exacting Than Dress Fashion

is the FASHION of CORSETS, since the gown is entirely dependent for its lines and fullest beauty upon the foundation of the dress—the corset. The NEW STYLES OF ROYAL WORCESTER AND AMERICAN LADY CORSETS are admirably shaped to harmonize with the season's development in gowns, and above all else, each style is luxuriously comfortable. Incidentally their appearance is a delight to the most fastidious eye.

Exclusive agents for MUNSING WEAR for Women and Children

FINE QUALITY, NON-IRRITATING, UNION SUITS
WORLD FAMOUS FOR FIT, DURABILITY AND WASHABILITY

You'll Not Buy Them As Often...

Their wonderful wear-resisting qualities and their remarkable elasticity make them the ideal undergarments for Children. Youngsters outgrow them before they outwear them, yet the elastic web yields so readily to every motion that little folks can romp and play all day long in perfect comfort and without the least danger of ripping or tearing the garment. Parents find them practical and economical.

Permit us to amplify by saying that economy depends not alone on what you pay but also, and more especially on what you get in return.

Where is the economy in paying 48c for an ill fitting, uncomfortable garment for your boy or girl, when for 50c you can have perfect fitting, durable, comfortable MUNSINGWEAR?

The woman who buys an ordinary undergarment for 89c or 98c and finds it wholly unsatisfactory is surely short sighted, when she might have soft, warm, elastic, perfect-fitting MUNSINGWEAR for $1.00

It is the object of this advertisement to make you think—to cause you to see that by putting price before quality is not economy.
